Bal Harbour Shops Celebrates Milestone 50th Anniversary with Day of Indulgence

Celebrating their 50th anniversary this year, Bal Harbour Shops invited guests to enjoy a day of luxury. Bal Harbour Shops, is the first all-luxury fashion center featuring high-end retailers in a tropical, open-air setting. It is anchored by luxury department stores Neiman Marcus and Saks Fifth Avenue and home to approximately 100 top designer boutiques and specialty retailers, including Chanel, Bulgari, Salvatore Ferragamo, Valentino and The Webster.

In 2012, Bal Harbour Shops topped the list as the world's most productive shopping center, based on sales per square foot, according to data compiled by the International Council of Shopping Centers. Three generations of the Whitman family, Stanley, Randi & Matthew remain steadfast in their shared vision for this fashion mecca and its continued success.

In celebration of Bal Harbour Shops 50th anniversary, invited guests were to a casual lunch and a day of pampering that included appointments for make-up sessions from the on-demand, app-based beauty provider, GLAMSQUAD at Bal Harbour Shops Red Market Salon, Natalie & Celine Gee's GEE Beauty brow treatment, false lash application or a mini oxygen blast, a fitting with Phat Buddha designer Alissa Benishai, perfect handmade hat from luxury hat & accessory designer Eugenia Kim, Designer Eyes fitted guests with a special pair of Miu Miu sunglasses, personalized acupuncture ear bead treatments by Dr. Ronel Corbin, Photo&Go 6 personalized photos, personalized SkinIt case for guests electronic device of choice.
