

Bespoke Bal Harbour: A Creatives Dream

By: Alexa Shabinsky | October 22, 2021 | Style & Beauty

Bal Harbour Shops is hosting its inaugural Bespoke Bal Harbour event this weekend. From Thursday, October 21 through Sunday, October 24, the luxury open-air shopping center is honoring the art of craftsmanship and celebrating creatives.

The four-day event brings together in-store activations where shoppers can experience a one-of-a-kind look into the artistry behind some of the most coveted brands.

Activations include Dolce & Gabbana, where an artisan will be painting a selection of personalized designs on sneakers and handbags. At Salvatore Ferragamo, shoppers will experience the newly launched Product Personalization program with artist Michael Hirschberge. Female-founded and focussed, Stella McCartney is exploring the Stella Shared 3 Collection and allowing individuals to take advantage of complimentary manicures with custom nail art. Ermenegildo Zegna will be displaying its new Fall/Winter Made to Measure Trunk Show. Other in-store activations include De Beers, Panerai, Buccellati and KRELwear to name a few.

The event launched in October 21 with an impressive celebration, and a weekend of exciting events to follow.

As you take advantage of the many opportunities and activations within the Bal Harbour Shops, drop your kids off for one of the many workshops.

On Saturday, October 23 at 11 a.m., an Art Class for Kids with Autumn Casey will take place at Center Square. Casey, a local artist will work with children on bespoke personal journals.

Also on Saturday, at 2 p.m., an Art Class for Kids with Octavia Yearwood will take place at Centre Square. This workshop will emphasize the power of storytelling and the kids will make their own bespoke t-shirts to help express their individuality.

This series of events and workshops is a celebration of creatives that you don't want to miss. Be sure to head to Bal Harbour Shops now through Sunday.